"Over 50 Years of Quality Service"

Junior Coach Position Available

Gearing up for the upcoming spring season Girls on the Run of Northwest Indiana are accepting applications for the volunteer Junior Coach positions to help lead teams in their Lake and Porter County service areas. This volunteer position is open to students sixteen to eighteen years of age and can commit to the following: five hours of training split between on-line and in-person, consistently attend after-school twice a week for 75-90 minutes during the ten-week season.

Girls on the Run is an inclusive physical activity-based, positive youth development program that inspires girls in 3rd through 8th grade to be joyful, healthy and confident. The program teaches critical life skills, encourages personal development and fosters team building and community service.

"I have most enjoyed helping the girls learn their worth and train for the 5K. I learned how to incorporate important lessons into exercises to make it fun," Emma Ton, junior at Westville High School who served as a junior coach during the Fall 2019 season of Girls on the Run.

Volunteer coaches utilize a curriculum to engage teams of girls in fun, interactive lessons. Girls on the Run of Northwest Indiana serves girls at over 120 sites in ten counties in NWI and is need of ten coaches to ensure that girls will have an opportunity to participate in this transformative program this season. At the conclusion of the ten-week season the program culminates with all teams participating in a celebratory 5K event.

Girls on the Run of Northwest Indiana's volunteer coach registration is now open. For more information on the volunteer junior coach position or to apply go to www.gotrofnwi.org/Coach.

Request for Proposal Released for Downtown

Mayor Thomas M. McDermott, Jr. and the City's Department of Planning and Development have released a new and vibrant RFP for an important downtown Hammond site. The City of Hammond is requesting proposals for a brand new multi-use residential building which would house 200+ units, with retail and commercial on the ground level, complimenting a new active and welcoming plaza at the corner of Hohman Avenue and a designed Rimbach Street.

"This first step is crucial in setting the tone for Downtown Hammond's future," says Mayor Thomas M. McDermott, Jr. "The City is moving forward with its new Master Plan from Jeff Speck and Associates and the interest we're receiving from developers already it outstanding. With the new Downtown Hammond train station cementing this area of our city, the heart of our community is already beating again."

Letters of Intent to respond are due to Africa Tarver, Executive Director of Planning and Development at atarver@gohammond.com by January 15, 2020, with the full Proposals due February 28, 2020 at noon. All information about this RFP, Downtown Hammond, and its new Master Plan is located at www.gohammond.com/downtown.

For more information, please contact Anne Anderson, Director of Economic Development, at andersona@gohammond.com or 219-853-6508 x-1.

Coach's Corner Denied Renewal

The Lake County Liquor Board today unanimously denied the renewal of Coach's Corner liquor license. The embattled Hessville bar faced remonstrators including the City of Hammond, the Hammond Police Department, Councilwoman Janet Venecz, 6th District Councilman Scott Rakos and others.

Since a murder that occurred in the parking lot of the bar on November 24th, the bar has been under intense scrutiny by the public and the city. The city presented evidence of 77 police calls since the current owner took ownership of the bar in September of 2018, including 9 fights, 2 domestic batteries, 4 weapons offenses, and the one homicide. "I am happy with the liquor board's decision," said Mayor Thomas McDermott, Jr. "As mayor I've always taken tough stances against bars that become nuisances for our neighborhoods and havens for violence. I hope the state commission affirms this decision," he said.

Officer Brendon O'Neil testified about the additional manpower that the bar has drained from the city over the last year and a half and the extra patrols that the police department has imposed since the night of the murder. "This bar is taking patrols that we should have in other parts of the city and focusing them on the far north part of Hessville to watch Coach's Corner," he said.

The city also presented evidence that the bar's business license was being investigated and the pizza business inside the bar was operating without a license. "I was surprised the bar through their attorney failed to take any responsibility for what has happened at their bar. They blamed the city, the police and bad patrons. If they have any desire to continue to have a good relationship with the city they need to step up and acknowledge their shortcomings, not blame everyone else," said Kevin Smith, corporation counsel for the city.

The bar plans on appealing the denial of their liquor license to the Indiana Alcoholic Beverage Commission in Indianapolis.

TATC Announces Cast for Almost Heaven

Theatre at the Center Artistic Director Linda Fortunato has cast Shannon McEldowney, Steven Romero Schaeffer, Andrew Mueller, Sara Geist, and Tommy Malouf in the musical revue Almost Heaven: John Denver's America to open its 30th Anniversary Season. The cast will be joined on stage by musicians William Underwood, Malcolm Ruhl and Alison Tatum. Fortunato will direct and William Underwood is the Music Director. Previews begin on February 13 with an Opening Night on February 16 and a continued run through March 22.

According to Variety, "The show pays tribute to an artist who remains great at making people feel good."

Almost Heaven: John Denver's America, written and adapted by Peter Glazer and directed by Linda Fortunato, is a musical tribute and intimate celebration of John Denver's life and career. From growing up in a military family to his emergence on the 1960s folk scene, the climb to '70s superstardom and his later career of the 1980s and 1990s, John Denver's story is brought to life in this Chicago-area premiere through hits such as "Country Roads," "Rocky Mountain High," "Annie's Song," and "Sunshine on My Shoulders."

Your Donation Could Lead to the Super Bowl

The American Red Cross currently has a critical need for blood donors of all blood types – especially type O – and platelet donors to make an appointment now to give and help replenish the blood supply after the holiday weeks. Right now, the Red Cross has less than a three-day supply of type O blood. To help tackle the critical need, the Red Cross and NFL are working together to offer one lucky winner a trip to Super Bowl LIV in Miami.

During the weeks of Christmas and New Year's, about 500 fewer blood drives were hosted by volunteer sponsor groups than required to meet patient needs. Many groups postpone blood drives during the winter holidays when travel and holiday activities may make it challenging for many donors to give. In fact, AAA estimated that a record 115.6 million Americans traveled during the holiday period of Dec. 21 through Jan. 1.

"Lifesaving medical treatments and emergencies never take a holiday," said Rodney Wilson, communications manager, Red Cross Indiana Ohio Biomedical Services. "Declines in donations can affect patient care. That's why the Red Cross is encouraging eligible donors to make an appointment to give now and help those sidelined by illness and trauma."

Donors are urged to make an appointment to give now using the Red Cross Blood Donor App, visiting RedCrossBlood.org, calling 1-800-RED CROSS (1-800-733-2767) or enabling the Blood Donor Skill on any Alexa Echo device.

As a special thank-you, those who come to give blood or platelets Jan. 1-19, 2020, will automatically be entered for a chance to experience the Super Bowl live. The Red Cross and NFL have teamed up to offer one winner two tickets to Super Bowl LIV, entry to the official NFL Tailgate, tickets to Super Bowl Experience at the Miami Beach Convention Center, round-trip airfare to Miami, three-night hotel accommodations at The Alexander® - All Suite Oceanfront Resort (Jan. 31 to Feb. 3), and a $500 gift card for expenses.* Additional details are available at RedCrossBlood.org/SuperBowl.

"The Red Cross appreciates the NFL's support during this crucial time of year when every donation – and every donor – matters. We hope this may inspire some to make regular blood donation one of their New Year's resolutions," said Wilson.

Munster High's All-Stars Nominee

Senior Emma Higgason is Munster High School's nominee to the Indiana Academic All-Stars recognition program. Juniors Shriya Iyer, Benjamin Mellon, Ava Quasney, and Emily Shu have been selected as Munster High School's Rising Stars of Indiana-Class of 2021. The students were selected for these honors for their outstanding academic achievements while in high school.

The Rising Stars program, sponsored by the Indiana Association of School Principals' (IASP), is recognizing high school juniors for the 4th time as a complement to its Indiana Academic All-Stars recognition program for high school seniors, now in its 34th year. Every year, the IASP asks each Indiana high school to nominate one representative to its Indiana Academic All-Star program and to select up to four students currently in the 11th grade to represent Munster High School among the Rising Stars of Indiana-Class on 2021. Rising Stars nominees receive a certificate.

From all the senior nominees to the Academic All-Stars program, 40 are selected as Indiana Academic All-Stars and 50 are recognized as Regional All-Stars. Those 90 students will be invited to a recognition lunch on April 30 and may also be eligible for a scholarship if attending Indiana University or Purdue University.

The IASP issued a statement: "Please join us in congratulating these students on all they have already achieved. We offer our support and encouragement as they continue their accomplishments and expand their knowledge, growth, and leadership skills well into the future."

Through its Department of Student Programs, the IASP provides extra-curricular activities for students in grades 4-12. During the 2018-19 school year, over 42,000 students representing every Indiana county participated in IASP sponsored activities. Programs include Indiana Academic All-Stars, Indiana Academic Spell Bowl, Indiana Academic Super Bowl, Indiana Academic Quiz Bowl, Future Problem Solvers, M.A.T.H. Bowl, Science Bowl, Martin Luther King Jr. Essay Writing Contest, Student Day At the Legislature, and the Indiana Cheer Championship.

"Chapter Two" at Beatniks Theater

Hammond Community Theatre presents "Chapter Two," by Neil Simon, directed by Andy Leahy.

George and Jennie are in love, utterly perfect for each other, and are getting married. There are just a few problems: 1) They've only been dating for two weeks. 2) George's beloved wife of twelve years just passed away. 3) Jennie has just gone through five years of counseling which culminated in a messy divorce. George's brother, Leo, and Jennie's friend, Faye, don't have it any easier. Both of their marriages are in trouble, they're worried about George and Jennie getting married too quickly, and the two of them are thinking about having an affair with each other. Neil Simon's semi-autobiographical Chapter Two examines what it means to truly love someone else, and asks whether finding a soulmate can happen more than once in a lifetime.

Society of Innovators Gives Award

The Society of Innovators at Purdue Northwest has announced John Davies as the organization’s first Lifetime Achievement Award recipient.

This award is the Society of Innovators’ highest honor for an individual leader. The award will not be given every year, but rather will be presented as the organization’s Board of Directors identifies deserving candidates. Not only must the Lifetime Achievement Award recipient demonstrate significant innovation, but that the work was sustained over a significant amount of time and their success was not limited to just one role, company or sector. It is open to any individual whose work took place in or significantly impacted the Northwest Indiana region.

“John Davies easily crosses the hurdle of being recognized for lifetime achievement in this community,” said Gary Johnson, president of Mortar Net Solutions and board chair of the Society of Innovators at Purdue Northwest.

Davies is the founder and retired managing director of the Society of Innovators. He successfully led the organization from its inception in 2005 until 2018. Davies was also instrumental in relaunching the South Shore poster series in the late 1990s and worked with the South Shore Convention & Visitors Authority (SSCVA) to create the Wall of Legends in 2004, an exhibit focused on often unsung Region heroes who shared the values of exploration, courage, creativity and innovation.

A self-proclaimed champion for Northwest Indiana, Davies was one of the first to say that innovation exists in the region. He has helped drive a culture of innovation here.

“While speaking with many of John Davies’ friends and colleagues, we quickly discovered that this award is long overdue,” said Jason Williams, assistant director of the Society of Innovators at Purdue Northwest. “It is clear that John’s impact on this region will last for generations to come.”

Davies was recognized at the Society’s annual event on Nov. 21. More information about the award can be found online at www.pnw.edu/soi/awards.

Mayor Thomas M. McDermott Jr., The City of Hammond, and The Ministerial Alliance of Hammond and Vicinity present:

Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Annual Candlelight March

“Keep Moving Forward”

Monday, January 20, 2020

This year's march begins with a 6:30am ribbon cutting to dedicate Hammond's new Freedom Plaza, located at Tapper Avenue & Highland Street, and lighting of the Plaza's Eternal Flame.

After the dedication, join us as we march to the Hammond Civic Center where festivities will continue.
