Hammond has the Best Tasting Water in Indiana

Alliance of Indiana Rural Water Honors Hammond Water Works as the Best-Tasting Water in Indiana

The Alliance of Indiana Rural Water (AIRW) is proud to announce that Hammond Water Works has been named the winner of the 2025 "Best Tasting Water in Indiana" competition.

The annual statewide contest took place during lunch on the first day of the Alliance of Indiana Rural Water Annual Fall Conference, held at the Grand Wayne Convention Center in Fort Wayne, Indiana. Throughout the year, the Alliance—in partnership with Wessler Engineering—hosted four regional "Taste Test" competitions around the state to determine which utilities would advance to the finals.

Participating water samples were evaluated based on clarity, odor, and taste, key elements that collectively determine overall drinking water quality. The competition is part of the Quality on Tap!® Campaign, which emphasizes the high quality, standards, and taste of Indiana's rural and municipal drinking water.

As the state winner, Hammond Water Works will represent Indiana in "The Great American Water Taste Test," a national competition held on Capitol Hill in Washington, D.C., in February 2026. The national event is part of the Rural Water Rally, an annual legislative gathering of the 50 state affiliates of the National Rural Water Association (NRWA). The Alliance congratulates Hammond Water Works and all the regional participants for their hard work, dedication, and ongoing commitment to protecting public health through exceptional water quality and service.

95 die in Chicago school fire

A fire at a grade school in Chicago kills 87 children and three nuns on December 1, 1958; five more children later died as a result of their injuries.

The Our Lady of Angels School was operated by the Sisters of Charity in Chicago. In 1958, there were well over 1,200 students enrolled at the school, which occupied a large, old building. Unfortunately, little in the way of fire prevention was done before December 1958. The building did not have any sprinklers and no regular preparatory drills were conducted. When a small fire broke out in a pile of trash in the basement, it led to disaster.

The fire probably began about 2:30 p.m. and, within minutes, teachers on the first floor smelled it. These teachers led their classes outside, but did not sound a general alarm. The school's janitor discovered the fire at 2:42 and shouted for the alarm to be rung. However, he was either not heard or the alarm system did not operate properly, and the students in classrooms on the second floor were completely unaware of the rapidly spreading flames beneath them.

It took only a few more minutes for the fire to reach the second floor. Panic ensued. Some students jumped out windows to escape. Although firefighters who were arriving on the scene tried to catch them, some were injured. Firefighters also tried to get ladders up to the windows. One quick-thinking nun had her students crawl under the smoke and roll down the stairs, where they were rescued. Other classes remained in their rooms, praying for help.

When the fire was finally extinguished several hours later, the authorities found that 90 people had perished.

To incorporate health into Holidays food

Healthier main dishes

- Lean protein: Opt for a turkey crown, whole roast chicken, or baked salmon to reduce fat intake.
- Fish: Consider serving fish like salmon for healthy omega-3 fats.
- Protein-rich swaps: Replace processed meats like bacon and ham with whole pork or turkey.

Healthier side dishes

- Roasted vegetables: Roast vegetables like Brussels sprouts, cauliflower, parsnips, or carrots with herbs and spices instead of heavy sauces.
- Hearty salads: Create salads with a base of winter greens, citrus, or beets to balance richer dishes.

- Sweet potato alternatives: Bake sweet potato with a light drizzle of maple syrup or olive oil, or make sweet potato rosti.
- Casserole swaps: Make a healthier green bean casserole using fresh mushrooms and Greek yogurt, or a roasted parsnip and celeriac bake.

Smarter swaps and tips

- Roasting method: Use olive oil instead of butter to roast potatoes and other vegetables.
- Sauces and gravies: Skim the fat off gravy, or make lighter sauces from scratch using ingredients like nonfat Greek yogurt.
- Stuffing: Add extra vegetables like parsley to your stuffing or make healthier stuffing balls.

PULLMAN STANDARD RAILCAR

In 1975, Pullman Standard purchased the Hammond manufacturing plant for the construction and assembly of 236 double-deck long distance passenger cars for Amtrak.

In addition to the passenger car plant, Pullman Standard also operated a freight car parts and flat car repair plant, and the Champ Carry Technical Center. The Tech Center was the largest and most modern privately-owned facility of its type in the United States. It was the home of Pullman Standard's research and development department, and freight car engineering department.

The Hammond location's primary function was the final assembly point for the Amtrak passenger cars. In addition to building the bi-level passenger cars for Amtrak, the Hammond freight car division of the Hammond facility received orders to rebuild and repair 395 covered hopper cars. It had also refurbished and repaired flat cars for the Trailer Train Company.

The Pullman Standard freight engineering department was instrumental in improving existing products and developing new products.

These innovations included a triple-deck enclosed auto-carrier that was designed to minimize damage by vandals and inclement weather that protected the railcar's valuable cargo. Three new automatic-unloading coal cars were introduced.

A cement service car capable of carrying 100 tons was developed along with a sugar service car that provided protection from contamination and infestation for its 200,000-pound cargo payload.

I was 15 when I was diagnosed just 2 months after getting Covid 19. My biological mom has T1D so I knew what symptoms and signs to look for. My symptoms started out with cramping in my legs and constant thirst. This was during Covid so the water fountains weren't open at school and we had to buy bottles of water - therefore, every single period, I would go into the bathroom and drink water out of the faucet because I was so thirsty. It would get to the point where I would burst into tears if I couldn't get any water.

After a little while, I started getting bad headaches and using the bathroom continuously. Eventually, all of my symptoms were showing - weight loss, exhaustion, stomach pains, sickness, and hunger.

I asked my dad to get me tested but he didn't think anything of it so he never made the appointment. After many times of me asking to get my blood tested, he finally caved. The morning after my bloodwork, my dad got a phone call saying that he needed to rush me to the hospital immediately because my blood sugar was at 770. That was the first time I ever saw my dad cry. It was also the day that my life changed forever.

Since being diagnosed, I have gone through very many rough patches. Sometimes I feel like I need to take care of myself perfectly so that I can have good health, other times I feel like I don't care what happens to me and I just want to give up.

Meet Ulyssia

Diabetes isn't just a physical health issue. When I was first diagnosed, I went into a horrible stage of depression and rarely checked my blood sugar or took insulin, even when I ate. I ate carbs constantly. With such high blood sugars, carbs were all I wanted.

Now that I'm 18 years old, I still struggle to take care of myself. I am much happier and take better care of my diabetes, but it really is a struggle at times.
